متن فایل صوتی شماره ۳

My family and I celebrate Yalda Night every year. It's the longest night of the year and it's a very old Persian festival. We usually have a family gathering. My father calls some relatives and invites them over. My grandmother reads poems of Hafez for us. We enjoy them a lot. My mother makes dinner. She is a great cook. My sister decorates a watermelon and takes photos. She posts them online and gets many likes! I eat a lot and usually get a stomachache the day after. I know it's not ok but I just do it every year. Anyway, Yalda is a very special night and we all have a wonderful time together.

متن فایل صوتی شماره ۱۹

Hi, my name is Bahareh. I'm from Iran. In our country, people celebrate the first day of spring. That's on March 20th or 21st. This is our New Year. The celebration continues for two weeks. Before New Year we clean our houses and buy new clothes. My father gives some money to the poor people. My sister and I always set the Haft Seen Table. We put the Holy Quran and a mirror on the table, too. On New Year Day, we sit around the table and recite the Holy Quran. My mother cooks something special for lunch. Then we visit our relatives.

متن فایل صوتی شماره ۲۰

Solnal is the Korean New Year. Families travel to visit relatives. An important part of the holiday is the “Sebae”. It means showing respect for old family members. People eat rice cakes and play old games. People don’t sleep and are awake till midnight to say goodbye to the past year. And they think if you sleep, your hair changes white. Most children know this is not true, but they like to stay awake.

Iranian people celebrate Yalda Night or Shab-e-Chelleh on December 21st. They celebrate the beginning of winter. People in Afghanistan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan, and Armenia also celebrate it. On this night, family members get together, go to their grandparents’ houses, and stay awake all night long. They eat nuts, watermelon and pomegranate. They also make a wish by opening a book. The book is called Divan-e-Hafez. Yalda is wonderful because it brings families together.
